If you go through this thread and click on the posts from anthonyofboston, you will notice that they have all been deleted. While the username anthonyofboston(me) was banned back in June, the posts, however, remained intact and provided evidence of predicting escalated rocket fire in advance. Those posts have now been removed. You can check here in this thread

I encourage people who have witnessed these predictions in real time to post on social media testifying publicly to witnessing these signs before it's too late and lost to history. This conspiracy is active and my youtube channel could be next
